Mr. David Nugent
Interim Principal

Mr. Robert Truax
Assistant Principal

OHS Summer School 2019 will run from June 19th through July 25th. No school on July 4th or 5th.

High School courses are offered for grades 9-12 in English, Math, Science, and Social Studies.

Applications can be mailed or dropped off at the OHS Main Office. Checks should be made payable to Town of Oxford. Cost for summer school is $150 per course, a reduced rate of $100 is available for student eligible for free/reduced lunch benefits. Contact Mr. David Nugent at Ext. 35106 for any questions.

Summer School courses will be divided into three sessions once registration is complete. Once finalized, the times of each specific class will be posted on the OHS website by June 18, 2019.

Session 1: 8:00-9:00

Session 2: 9:05-10:05

Session 3: 10:10-11:10

Transportation to and from summer school will be the parent's responsibility.

If a student has BELOW the qualifying mark of 50 in any subject and wishes to attend summer school, THEY MUST PROVIDE A LETTER OF APPEAL ALONG WITH THIS APPLICATION. The letter should be addressed to Mr. David Nugent, OHS Administration/Director of Summer School.

Please note that only two absences will be allowed before a student loses credit in Summer School. Three tardies to class equals one absence.

Please also note that the policies found in the 2018-2019 Oxford High School Student Handbook will be followed for the duration of Summer School.

Please detach the application below and submit no later than June 17, 2019.
